1. Postal and electronic votes prior to the General Meeting

Any shareholders of Ebro Foods entitled to attend and vote may vote prior to the meeting on the items on the agenda for the Extraordinary General Meeting, on the terms set out in the Corporate Enterprises Act, Articles 17 and 17 bis of the company's Articles of Association and Articles 13 bis and 13 ter of the Regulations of the General Meeting.

Shareholders may use any of the following means for this purpose:

- a) Delivery of the voting card at the company's offices. Shareholders may exercise their voting right prior to the General Meeting by presenting at the company's offices (Paseo de la Castellana, 20, 2ª planta, 28046 Madrid) the voting card issued by the member of Iberclear at which they have deposited their shares, duly completed and signed.

If the attendance card issued by the member of Iberclear does not include the section "Postal and Electronic Vote", or does not allow the incorporation of voting instructions when the shareholder wishes to give them, or in any other such circumstances, any shareholder wishing to cast a postal or electronic vote should download and print the Attendance and Postal/Electronic Proxy and Voting Card from the Ebro Foods website www.ebrofoods.es, completing and signing the section "Postal and Electronic Vote". That card, completed as indicated, together with the original attendance card issued by the Iberclear member, also signed, must be delivered to the company's offices.

Corporate shareholders must also present at the company's offices the deed evidencing sufficient powers of attorney of the individual(s) signing the cards.

Any shareholders delivering the aforesaid documentation to the Iberclear member at which their shares are deposited must make sure that the institution in question will send the card to Ebro Foods in due time and form.

In view of the situation caused by the pandemic, any shareholders wishing to use this option of personal delivery of the card at the registered office are urged to request an appointment through the Shareholders' Office on telephone number +34 917245267 from 09.00 to 14.00 horas, or writing to oficinadelaccionista@ebrofoods.es.

The Company might not be able to attend any shareholders who turn up without an appointment, in which case they would, if possible, be given an alternative date and time as soon as possible, complying with all and any measures that may be adopted by the competent authorities after the publication of this notice of call.

Furthermore, should it so deem fit in view of the circumstances, rules in place or recommendations given at any time, the Company may suspend the personal delivery of cards in order to avoid the physical presence of shareholders at the company's offices. Shareholders will be informed whether this option is available when they contact the Shareholders' Office to request an appointment.

- b) Vote by post or equivalent courier service. Shareholders may exercise their voting right prior to the General Meeting by sending the voting card issued by the member of Iberclear at which they have deposited their shares, duly completed and signed, to the company's offices (Paseo de la Castellana, 20, 2ª planta, 28046 Madrid) by post or equivalent courier service, marking the envelope "Postal Vote – Extraordinary General Meeting 2020".

If the attendance card issued by the member of Iberclear does not include the section "Postal and Electronic Vote", or does not allow the incorporation of voting instructions when the shareholder wishes to give them, or in any other such circumstances, any shareholder wishing to cast a postal or electronic vote should download and print the Attendance and Postal/Electronic Proxy and Voting Card from the Ebro Foods website www.ebrofoods.es, completing and signing the "Postal and Electronic Vote" section. Corporate shareholders must also send a copy of the deed evidencing sufficient powers of attorney of the individual(s) signing the cards.

Any shareholders delivering the aforesaid documentation to the Iberclear member at which their shares are deposited must make sure that the institution in question will send the card to Ebro Foods in due time and form.

The company will not be liable for any difficulties or loss endured by the shareholders owing to delays or limitations in the postal and courier services resulting from the restrictions that may be established by virtue of the present health situation.

- c) Vote on the electronic platform. Shareholders may exercise their voting right prior to the General Meeting by using the form provided for this purpose on the Company's website www.ebrofoods.es, in the section General Meeting of Shareholders 2020. It is essential to prove shareholders' status as such by attaching to the corresponding form a pdf copy of the attendance card issued by the member of Iberclear at which they have deposited their shares, duly signed. Corporate shareholders must also attach pdf copies of the documents evidencing the powers of attorney of the individuals voting on their behalf.

2. Postal and electronic proxies prior to the General Meeting

3. Basic rules on postal and electronic votes and proxies

3.1 Enabling of vote and proxy on electronic platforms

The application for voting and granting proxies on electronic platforms will be enabled on the Company's website www.ebrofoods.es from 27 November 2020 to 17.00 on the day before the General Meeting on first call (i.e. up to 17.00 on 15 December 2020).

3.2 Deadline for receipt by the company of postal and electronic votes and proxies

In order to be valid, in pursuance of the Regulations of the General Meeting, postal and electronic votes and proxies exercised as above must be received by the Company by 17.00 on the day before the General Meeting is scheduled on first call. Otherwise the proxy will be deemed not granted and the vote not cast, unless subsequent receipt, prior to the General Meeting, does not hamper due checking and counting for the preparation and holding of the General Meeting.

3.3 Rules of priority for proxy, postal vote and online attendance of the General Meeting

3.3.1 Priorities between online presence and postal/electronic votes or proxies

- (i) Online attendance at the General Meeting by a shareholder who has previously made a postal or electronic proxy or vote will annul such proxy or vote.
- (ii) Similarly, postal and electronic votes will render void any proxy made by post or electronically, whether earlier, in which case the proxy will be deemed revoked, or later, in which case it will be deemed not made.

3.3.2 Priorities between several postal proxies or several postal/electronic votes

If one shareholder validly makes several postal or electronic proxies, the last one received by the company will prevail.

Shareholders may validly cast a postal or electronic vote only once in respect of each share position. If one shareholder remits several postal or electronic votes in respect of the same shares, the first vote received by the company will prevail and any received thereafter will be void. Postal and electronic votes may only be revoked or changed by the shareholder's online attendance of the General Meeting.

3.4 Other provisions

- (i) Both proxies and postal/electronic votes will be rendered void by any sale or disposal of the shares known to the company conferring the right to attend.
- (ii) If the shareholder is a legal person, the Company shall consider the powers of attorney evidenced by the individual signing the documents on behalf of that shareholder to be in force and not revoked, unless the corporate shareholder has formally notified it otherwise. Ebro Foods accepts no responsibility until such notification has been made.
- (iii) Proxies must be accepted by the representative (proxy). For this purpose, representatives will be deemed to accept the proxy if they exercise it by attending the General Meeting online and evidencing their identity and the delegation made in their favour. If the proxy is granted in favour of the Chairman of the General Meeting or a Director, the delegation will be deemed accepted by the proxy provided it has been received by the Company within the time stipulated in paragraph 3.2 above.
- (iv) If the voting intentions or instructions are not expressly stated in the postal or electronic vote or proxy card, the shareholder will be deemed to vote for, or to instruct their proxy to vote for, the resolutions proposed by the board.
- (v) If the proxy card does not name the proxy, it will be deemed made in favour of the Chairman of the General Meeting or such person as the Chairman may delegate. When the representation of the shareholder corresponds to the Chairman of the General Meeting or a director, by express or tacit designation, and the proxy card does not contain specific voting instructions, should the proxy be in a conflict of interest in respect of one or several of the items on the agenda, the proxy will be deemed granted, for that item or items, to the Secretary of the General Meeting, unless otherwise indicated by the shareholder in the proxy card.

For this purpose, it is expressly put on record that the Chairman or any director who has been named proxy by a shareholder will be in a conflict of interest in their re-election as director (item three on the agenda). In this situation, unless the represented shareholder has otherwise expressly stated, they shall be deemed to have issued specific instructions to their proxy to vote for the proxy's re-election as director.

- (vi) Save otherwise indicated by the shareholder in the proxy or voting card (in which case the shareholder will be deemed to abstain, or to instruct their proxy to abstain), the proxy will be extended to any items which, although not included on the agenda, may be put to the vote at the general meeting. In this case the proxy shall vote howsoever they may uphold to be in the best interests of their principal, the provisions of the preceding paragraph being applicable in the event of any conflict of interest.
- (vii) The validity of the vote or proxy will be conditional upon confirmation of shareholder status, checking that the information on title and number of shares provided by the shareholder voting or granting a proxy coincides with the information recorded in the records kept by Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear). In the event of any discrepancy, the information existing in the records of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) will prevail.
- (viii) Possible conflicts of interest between proxies and their principals, and the internal relationships between them, will be governed by the relevant provisions of the Corporate Enterprises Act and the Company may not be held responsible for any failure by proxies to comply with the instructions received from their principal.
- (ix) In the event of jointly held shares, for the purposes contemplated in section 126 of the Corporate Enterprises Act the joint holder making the postal or electronic vote or proxy will be presumed designated by the other joint holders to exercise the rights corresponding to the shares.
