ATTENDANCE RIGHT AND PROXIES

The General Meeting may be attended by all shareholders who have registered their shares in the appropriate accounting record five days prior to the date of the meeting.

For onsite attendance, shareholders must provide evidence of the foregoing when registering their entrance to the meeting with the corresponding attendance, proxy or remote voting card issued by members of the Securities Recording, Clearing and Settlement Systems Management Company (Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores) (Iberclear).

Any individuals representing corporate shareholders must also prove that they have adequate powers of attorney.

Any shareholder may be represented at the general meeting by a proxy. For this purpose, the shareholder may (i) complete and sign the proxy card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los

Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which their shares are deposited, or (ii) download, complete and sign the proxy card provided for shareholders on the company's website www.ebrofoods.es. In the latter case, that card shall be accompanied by the card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which the shareholder has deposited their shares. Corporate shareholders shall also submit a copy of the powers of attorney of the individual granting the proxy on the shareholder's behalf. VOTING AND PROXY BY MEANS OF REMOTE COMMUNICATION PRIOR TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Any shareholders who so require may grant a proxy or exercise their voting right by means of remote communication prior to the date of the general meeting by any of the following means:

- (i) Delivery by hand at the company's offices. Prior to the date of the general meeting, shareholders may deliver at the company's offices (Paseo de la Castellana no. 20, 28046 Madrid) the attendance, proxy and remote voting card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which their shares are deposited, duly completed in the corresponding section and signed by the shareholder. Shareholders may also use the onsite and online attendance and proxy and remote voting cards available on the company's website www.ebrofoods.es, which should be delivered together with the attendance card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which their shares are deposited. For corporate shareholders, the card must be accompanied by proof of the powers of attorney of the individual exercising the proxy or remote voting on behalf of the shareholder.

Any shareholders wishing to use this option of personal delivery of the card at the offices of the Company are urged to request an appointment through the Shareholders' Office on telephone number +34 917245267 from 09:00 to 14:00 horas from Monday to Friday (except holidays), or writing to oficinadelaccionista@ebrofoods.es.

The Company might not be able to attend any shareholders turning up without an appointment, in which case they would, whenever possible, be given an alternative time and date as soon as possible, complying with any restrictions or recommendations that the competent authorities may adopt after the publication of this notice of call.

Furthermore, should it so deem fit in view of the circumstances, rules or medical recommendations in place at any time, the Company may suspend the personal delivery of cards at its offices in order to avoid the physical presence there of shareholders. Shareholders will be informed whether this option is available when they contact the Shareholders' Office to request an appointment.

- (ii) By post or courier service. For postal votes or proxies, shareholders shall send to the company's offices (Paseo de la Castellana no. 20, 28046 Madrid), the onsite and online attendance and proxy and remote voting card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which their shares are deposited, duly completed in the corresponding section and signed by the shareholder. Shareholders may also use the online and onsite attendance, proxy and remote voting cards available on the company's website www.ebrofoods.es, which should be delivered together with the card issued by the member of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores (Iberclear) at which their shares are deposited. For corporate shareholders, the card must be accompanied by proof of the powers of attorney of the individual exercising proxy or remote voting on behalf of the shareholder. The envelope shall be marked "Proxy and remote voting-AGM 2022".

The Company accepts no responsibility for any difficulties or detriment suffered by shareholders as a result of restrictions or delays in the postal and courier services.

- (iii) Electronically. For electronic votes or proxies, shareholders shall access the "Electronic vote and proxy" platform enabled within the AGM 2022 page on the company's website www.ebrofoods.es, prove their shareholder status and complete the corresponding forms following the instructions indicated. For this purpose, shareholders must have either a recognised digital signature based on a recognised, valid electronic certificate issued by the Spanish public certification authority (CERES) operating under the National Mint (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre), or a valid electronic identity card.

The remote electronic vote and proxy option will be enabled for use from 08.00 on 1 June 2022 to 17.00 on the day before the date of the General Meeting on first call (i.e. up to 17.00 on 28 June 2022).

Common rules on votes and proxies by means of remote communication prior to the annual general meeting.

The vote or proxy by means of remote communication prior to the Annual General Meeting must be received by the company on the terms indicated above by 17.00 on the day before the general meeting is scheduled on first call (i.e. up to 17.00 on 28 June 2022). Otherwise the vote will be considered not cast or the proxy not granted.

Onsite or online attendance of the general meeting by a shareholder who has previously issued a vote or proxy by means of remote communication will annul such postal or electronic vote or proxy.

If the voting intentions or instructions are not expressly stated in the proxy or remote voting, shareholders will be deemed to vote for, or to instruct their proxy to vote for, the resolutions proposed by the Board.

If the proxy card does not name the proxy, it will be deemed made in favour of the Chairman of the General Meeting or such person as he may delegate. When the representation of the shareholder corresponds to the Chairman of the General Meeting or a Director, by express or tacit designation, and the proxy card does not contain specific voting instructions, should the proxy be in a conflict of interest in respect of one or several of the items on the agenda, the proxy will be deemed granted, for that item or items, to the Secretary of the General Meeting, unless otherwise indicated by the shareholder in the proxy card. For this purpose and without prejudice to other cases that may arise, it is expressly put on record that any of the Directors whose ratification or re-election is proposed on the Agenda and who has been named proxy by a shareholder will be in a conflict of interest in their ratification or re-election as Director (item Six on the agenda). In this situation, unless the represented shareholder has otherwise expressly stated, they shall be deemed to have issued specific instructions to their proxy to vote for the proxy's ratification or re-election as Director, pursuant to section 526 of the Corporate Enterprises Act.

Save otherwise indicated by the shareholder in the proxy card (in which case the shareholder will be deemed to instruct his proxy to abstain), the proxy will be extended to any items which, although not included on the agenda, may be put to the vote at the general meeting. In this case the proxy will vote however they may uphold to be in the best interests of their principal, the provisions of the preceding paragraph being applicable in the event of any conflict of interest.

The validity of the remote vote or proxy will be conditional upon confirmation of shareholder status, the information on the holder and number of shares provided by the shareholder voting or granting a proxy and, where appropriate, the documentation referring to the individual authorised to represent a corporate shareholder.

The company will not be liable for any difficulties or loss endured by the shareholders owing to faults, defects, errors or malfunctioning of the computer, courier or postal services that may prevent or hamper use of the afore-mentioned proxy and remote voting channels prior to the General Meeting.

The rules adopted by the Board on proxies and remote voting are available on the company's website, www.ebrofoods.es.

Without prejudice to the possibility of onsite or online attendance of the Annual General Meeting on the terms set out hereinbelow, all shareholders wishing to exercise their voting and proxy rights by means of remote communication prior to the Annual General Meeting are recommended to do so by post or courier service or through the electronic platform enabled for this purpose on the company's website www.ebrofoods.es.

RESOLUTION PROPOSED UNDER ITEM FIVE ON THE AGENDA

Alteration, if appropriate, of the following articles of the Regulations of the General Meeting, voting separately and individually on each one.

5.1 Alteration of Article 7 (“Right to attend and proxies”) of the Regulations of the General Meeting.

To approve the alteration of Article 7 (“Right to attend and proxies”) of the Regulations of the General Meeting, which will be reworded as follows:

“Article 7. Right to attend and proxies

1. General meetings may be attended by all shareholders who have recorded their shares in the corresponding accounting record within the time indicated in the Articles of Association.

In addition, shareholders attending the General Meeting shall prove their shareholder status with the appropriate attendance card or certificate issued by one of the entities legally authorised to do so or in any other form acceptable by law. In the case of online attendance, they must also comply with the relevant indications in the notice of call to the meeting.

Attendance cards shall be personal, issued at the request of the interested party either directly by the Company on proof of shareholder status or by the institutions keeping the accounting records. These cards may be used by the shareholders as proxy documents for the relevant general meeting.

The Company may propose the format of the attendance card to be issued to shareholders by such institutions, to ensure that the attendance cards thus issued are uniform and incorporate a bar code or other system enabling electronic reading to facilitate the computerised counting of shareholders attending the meeting, indicating also the formula of that document for proxies.

2. Board members are obliged to attend general meetings, although non-attendance by one or several Directors will not affect the validity of the General Meeting.

The Chairman may authorise attendance by such other persons as they may deem fit, although this authorisation may be overturned by the general meeting.

3. Any shareholder entitled to attend may be represented at general meetings by another person as stipulated in the law and Articles of Association.

Proxies shall be granted specifically for each general meeting.

Shareholders may appoint proxies and notify the Company of their appointment in writing or in any form of remote communication. In the case of electronic communication, the Company shall establish a system for the electronic notification of proxy appointments, with such formal requirements as may be necessary and sufficient to guarantee identification of the shareholder and the proxy or proxies appointed, as well as the security of the electronic communications, including clear, precise information on this option in the notice of call. The provisions of this paragraph will also be applicable for the revocation of proxies.

If the delegating shareholder does not expressly name their proxy or if there is any uncertainty as to whom is appointed proxy, the proxy will be deemed made in favour of the Chairman of the General Meeting (or such person as they may delegate). If the proxy appointed is affected by a conflict of interest and the proxy form does not include specific voting instructions, the proxy will be deemed granted to the Secretary of the General Meeting.

Regardless of whether the representation is voluntary or required by law, no shareholder may be represented by more than one proxy at any general meeting, without prejudice to the provisions of section 4 of this article.

A proxy may represent more than one shareholder, with no limitation on the number of shareholders represented. When a proxy represents several shareholders, they may vote differently in each case according to the instructions issued by the respective shareholders.

In any case, the number of shares represented shall be counted for calculation of the quorum.

Prior to appointment, the proxy shall inform the shareholder in detail of any possible conflict of interest. If the conflict arises after their appointment and the represented shareholder has not been advised of its possible existence, the proxy shall inform the shareholder immediately. In both cases, if new specific voting instructions are not received for each of the issues in which the proxy may have to vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy shall abstain from voting.

There may be a conflict of interest for the purposes of this article, in particular, when the proxy is in any of the following situations:

- a) If the proxy is a controlling shareholder of the Company or an undertaking controlled by a controlling shareholder.
- b) If the proxy is member of the Board, management or supervisory bodies of the Company, controlling shareholder or an undertaking controlled by the latter. If the proxy is a Director, the provisions of section 526 of the Corporate Enterprises Act will apply.
- c) If the proxy is an employee or auditor of the Company, controlling shareholder or an undertaking controlled by the latter.
- d) If the proxy is an individual related party to the foregoing. Related individuals shall be: the spouse or someone who has been the spouse in the previous two years, or the common-law partner or someone who has been living with the proxy in the previous two years, and the ascendants, descendants, siblings and their respective spouses.

If the represented shareholder has issued instructions, the proxy shall vote in accordance with those instructions and shall keep those instructions for one year after the corresponding general meeting. Proxies may be revoked at any time. Personal attendance of the General Meeting, whether physical or online, by the represented shareholder will have the effect of revoking the proxy.

4. Any intermediaries legitimately recognised as shareholders by virtue of the accounting record of their shares but acting on behalf of several final beneficiaries may split votes and vote differently in fulfilment of different voting instructions, as the case may be.

The intermediaries may grant proxies for voting in favour of each of the final beneficiaries or to third parties designated by the latter, with no limit on the number of proxies.

5. In cases of proxy solicitations, the document containing the powers of attorney shall contain or annex the agenda, request for voting instructions and indications of how the proxy is to vote when no other specific instructions have been issued. A proxy solicitation shall be deemed to exist whenever any one person represents more than three shareholders.

The proxy may also include any items which, although not included on the agenda for the General Meeting, may lawfully be transacted thereat.

If there are no voting instructions because the General Meeting is going to resolve on issues which, by law, do not need to be included on the agenda, the proxy shall vote howsoever they may consider to be in the best interests of their principal, unless the represented shareholder has expressly stated in the proxy form that the proxy is not extended to issues not included on the agenda, in which case that shareholder will be deemed to abstain in the votes on such issues.

If the represented shareholder has issued instructions, the proxy may only vote otherwise in circumstances of which the shareholder was unaware at the time of issuing the instructions and when the represented shareholder's interests are in jeopardy.

In the last two cases, the proxy shall inform the represented shareholder forthwith in writing, explaining the reasons for their vote.

In proxy solicitations, the Director receiving such proxy may not exercise the voting right in respect of any items on the agenda in which they may be in conflict of interest, unless they have received specific voting instructions from the principal for each of those items, as stipulated in law. The Director will, in any case, be considered to be in a conflict of interest in respect of decisions concerning:

- a) their appointment, re-election or ratification as Director;*
- b) their dismissal, removal or cessation as Director;*
- c) any corporate action brought against them for liability;*
- d) approval or ratification, as appropriate, of Company transactions with the Director in question or companies that they control or represent, or persons acting on their behalf.*

6. The Presiding Board of the General Meeting shall have the fullest powers possible in law to accept the validity of the document or means evidencing the proxy and shall only consider invalid any which fail to meet the minimum essential requisites, provided such deficiencies cannot be remedied.”

5.2. Alteration of Article 13 bis (“Voting and proxies by remote communication prior to the General Meeting”) of the Regulations of the General Meeting.

To approve the alteration of Article 13 bis (“Voting and proxies by remote communication prior to the General Meeting”), which will be reworded as follows:

“Article 13 bis: Voting and proxies by remote communication prior to the General Meeting

1. Shareholders entitled to attend and vote may vote by post or electronic means on the motions relating to the agenda, as stipulated in the Articles of Association, these Regulations and any provisions passed by the Board in development of or supplementing those Regulations. They may also vote by any other form of remote communication whenever so indicated in the notice of call.

The remote voting card issued by the Company will include the possibility for shareholders to grant a proxy to the Chairman of the General Meeting (or such person as they may delegate) for proposed resolutions on items that might be transacted at a general meeting, being so permitted by law, even if they are not included on the agenda in the notice of call. Should the shareholder so decide, the provisions established in these Regulations on proxy voting will be applicable to the proxy for those issues not included on the agenda. If the remote voting shareholder does not grant a proxy to the Chairman of the General Meeting (or such person as they may delegate) for issues not included on the agenda, that shareholder will be deemed to abstain in the voting thereon.

Postal votes may be cast by sending the Company the attendance card issued by the Company or by any of the institutions responsible for keeping the records of shares issued in book-entry form, without prejudice to any other conditions and requirements established by the Board in pursuance of section 2 of this article.

Electronic votes shall be sent with a recognised electronic signature and/or any other form of guarantee considered adequate by the Board to ensure the authenticity and identification of the voting shareholder, without prejudice to any other conditions and requirements established by the Board in pursuance of section 2 of this article.

Votes cast by either of the means contemplated in this section 1 must be received by the Company 24 hours prior to the time at which the General Meeting is scheduled on first call. Otherwise they shall be deemed not cast.

Shareholders entitled to attend General Meetings who vote by remote communication in pursuance of this section 1 shall be counted as present for establishing the quorum of the relevant general meeting.

2. The Board is authorised to develop the provisions of section 1 above, establishing rules, means and procedures in accordance with the prevailing state of technology and such forms, conditions, limits and requirements as it may deem fit to supplement the regulation provided herein for remote voting. The Board shall also decide when shareholders may start remote voting, according to the state of and security offered by the available technical means.

The Board shall publish provisions on the Company's website developing and supplementing those of the Regulations of the General Meeting and the date as from which shareholders may commence remote voting.

3. In particular, the Board may regulate the use of guarantees other than the electronic signature for electronic voting, in order to preserve the authenticity or identification of shareholders thus exercising their voting rights, and may extend the deadline established in section 1 above for receipt by the Company of votes sent by postal or electronic correspondence.

In any case, the Board shall take whatever measures may be necessary to avoid duplicated votes and ensure that persons sending postal or electronic votes are duly authorised to do so pursuant to Article 13 of the Articles of Association.

4. The foregoing provisions will also be applicable to proxies granted by shareholders for General Meetings by post, electronic communication or any other form of remote communication.

5. According to the provisions of the Articles of Association, physical or online personal attendance of the General Meeting by a given shareholder will annul any postal or electronic vote cast by the same shareholder. Similarly, physical or online personal attendance by the represented shareholder will be deemed to revoke any proxy granted by electronic correspondence or any other form of remote communication contemplated in the notice of call."

5.3. Alteration of Article 14 ("Voting and resolutions") of the Regulations of the General Meeting.

To approve the alteration of Article 14 (“Voting and resolutions”), which will be reworded as follows:

“Article 14: Voting and resolutions

1. Resolutions shall be carried with the votes in favour of the simple majority of voting capital present and represented at the General Meeting, without prejudice to the quorums and voting majorities established in law for special resolutions.

Resolutions shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure and rules established below.

2. After due debate, the proposed resolutions shall be put to a vote.

The voting of resolutions shall follow the agenda set out in the notice of call, and if any motions have been submitted on issues that the General Meeting is authorised to resolve without including them on the agenda, they shall be put to a vote after the proposals corresponding to the items on the agenda.

3. Once they have been read out by the Secretary, which formality may be omitted provided no shareholder objects, the General Meeting shall vote first on the resolutions, if any, proposed by the Board and, otherwise, on any put forward by others, following the order established for this purpose by the Chairman.

Once a proposed resolution has been approved, all other motions on the same issue that are incompatible with that resolution will automatically be struck off the voting list.

4. Resolutions shall be adopted with the following voting system:

4.1. For proposed resolutions on business included on the agenda, the votes corresponding to all shares present or represented at the general meeting shall be deemed to vote for the proposal in question, except: (a) the votes corresponding to shares whose holders or representatives notify the scrutineers and other assistants of the Presiding Board or the Notary, as the case may be, in a written communication or personal declaration, of their vote against, blank vote or abstention, and (b) the votes, if any, corresponding to shares whose holders have voted against, cast a blank vote or abstained in any of the forms of remote communication contemplated in Article 13 bis of these Regulations.

4.2. For proposed resolutions on business not included on the agenda, the votes corresponding to all shares present or represented at the general meeting shall be deemed to vote against the proposal in question, except: (a) the votes corresponding to shares whose holders or representatives notify the scrutineers and other assistants of the Presiding Board or the Notary, as the case may be, in a written communication or personal declaration, of their vote for, blank vote or abstention, and (b) the votes corresponding to shareholders who have participated in the General Meeting by remote communication and have not availed themselves of the possibility of granting a proxy when voting by remote communication.

4.3. For the purposes contemplated in 4.1 and 4.2 above, the shares attending the meeting shall be all those included on the attendance list. For voting on decisions contemplated in section 526 of the Corporate Enterprises Act, the shares corresponding to Directors who may not vote pursuant to that provision will not be considered shares attending.

5. The above notwithstanding, the Presiding Board may, if so required by prevailing circumstances, establish any other system of voting that allows confirmation of the necessary votes in favour required to adopt the resolutions and a record of the voting results in the minutes.

6. Regardless of the system used to count the votes, the Presiding Board shall check that sufficient votes in favour have been cast to meet the majority stipulated in each case, enabling the Chairman to declare the corresponding resolution carried.

7. For each resolution put to the vote, at least the number of shares in respect of which valid votes were cast, the proportion of capital represented by those votes, the total number of valid votes, the number of votes for and against each resolution and the number of abstentions, if any, shall be specified.

8. For electronic votes, the Company shall send the voting shareholder electronic confirmation of receipt of their vote.

However, within one month from the date of the General Meeting, the shareholder or their representative and final beneficiary may request confirmation from the Company that the votes corresponding to their shares were correctly recorded and counted by the Company, unless they already have that information. The Company shall send that confirmation within the time stipulated in the applicable legal provisions.”

The alterations of the above articles are resolved in view of a written report by the Directors justifying those alterations, approved at the Board meeting held on 25 May 2022. That report, which contains the full text of the proposed alterations, has been published on the Company’s website www.ebrofoods.es and made available to shareholders since the date of publication of the notice of call to the General Meeting.
