

INFORMATION RELATED TO ANTONIO HERNÁNDEZ CALLEJAS
IDENTITY, CATEGORY AND PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Antonio Hernández Callejas was born in Tudela (Navarra) on 20 July 1955

He is Executive Director.

He has a BA in Economics from the University of Seville and a diploma in Law.

He began his professional career in 1979 in Arrocerías Herba, a rice enterprise founded by the Hernández family.

In 2002, he was appointed Director, Vice-Chairman and member of the Executive Committee of Ebro Foods, S.A. and since then he has been a key figure in the transformation and international expansion of Ebro.

In 2004, he was appointed Managing Director and in 2005 he became Executive Chairman of the Ebro Group.

Under his chairmanship, the Ebro Group has established itself as global number one in the rice sector and global second largest pasta manufacturer and has positioned itself in more than 70 countries in Europe, America, Africa and Asia, with a portfolio of more than 70 brands.

Over his professional career, he has received several prizes and awards, such as the Tiepolo Prize for Italian and Spanish business success, the Prize for Business Sponsorship of the University of Seville, the “Dinero” Business Prize for the best business management, Officer of the National Order of Merit of the Republic of France, Prize for Outstanding Business Career awarded by the Social Council of Seville University and the Confederation of Entrepreneurs from Seville (CES), Gold Medal of the City of Seville, Joly Group Award for Innovation in the Food Industry and the Manuel Clavero Award.

He speaks English, French and Italian.

The English version of this document is purely informative.
In the event of any discrepancy between the Spanish and English versions of this document, the Spanish version will prevail.

